

DAV Public School, Rohini, holds investiture ceremony

DAV Public School, Sector-7, Rohini held a grand investiture ceremony to induct and felicitate the newly elected office bearers for the session 2016-17.

The special programme organised by the school was presided over by the principal Rajbir Kaur and the chief guest additional SHO, North Rohini, Ghanshyam Meena.
The programme started with lighting the lamp by the chief guest. Thereafter, the entire team of the newly elected council marched into the ground led by the head boy, head girl, sports captain and the cultural head of the school, synchronising their steps with the beats of the school band.

The ex-council passed the baton to the newly elected council.
The principal presented sashes and badges to the office-bearers

Badges were conferred and also administered the oath of office. In her inspirational speech, she urged the students to take up the task entrusted to them with sincerity, diligence and dedication.

This was followed by the chief guest's words of wisdom. He appreciated the role of school in nurturing and training leaders of tomorrow. The programme concluded with the head girl and head boy proposing the vote of thanks.
